

Instruction:

The camp will cover all aspects of fastpitch softball. Fundamental skills in all phases of the game will be emphasized, however, the latest advanced techniques and strategies will be taught by a highly skilled group of coaches and staff.

Facilities:

The camp will be held at the Sports at the Beach complex located in Georgetown, Delaware. This "State of the Art" facility is complete with 16 fields to play on and a total of 30 batting cages near the fields for teams to warm up in before their games. The facility also has climate controlled dorms capable of accommodating up to 24 teams at a time.

Staff:

Camp Director - Jeff Savage: Head Coach at Delaware State University. The all time winningest softball coach in school history, his resume includes 5 MEAC titles and an NCAA Tournament Appearance. His teams have ranked in the top 20% of colleges for academic success. Coach Savage has appeared in 12 states and in Europe providing softball clinics and camps.

Assistant Directors - Laura Streets: Assistant Coach at Delaware State University. Prior to Del State she excelled at the University of Delaware and in the Italian Professional League. She ranks in the Top 10 at University of Delaware in 7 offensive categories.

Janice Savage: Assistant Coach University of North Florida. Janice has 5 years of college coaching experience working with pitchers. Her playing experience includes being named All Conference at Georgia Southern and NCAF All American at Del State. In 2005 she became the first Del State female athlete to sign a professional sports contract joining the Italian Pro League.

Guest Coaches:

Through out the camp special "guest coaches" will attend the camp and spend time with the campers. Former Olympic softball players, current professional softball players and coaches, as well as national softball instructors will spend time at the camp to meet and work with the campers during the camp.
